

Partnerships are essential to building and sustaining a vibrant career pathway ecosystem. Rate the overall status of your current partnerships below.

Partnership Check-up
Workforce and/or trade organizations in our region/state
Companies in our community/region
Chambers of commerce in our community/region
Community college workforce development team/department (or similar)
Adult education providers
Community organizations that support students' personal needs
Community college career advisors are familiar with high-demand, high-wage programs and related career opportunities, and provide support for recruitment
Area high school/school districts collaborate with the community college program to offer dual credit or similar credential acceleration options
Area high school counselors and career coaches are aware of high-demand, high-wage programs and related career opportunities, and provide support for recruitment
University partners support pathway articulation from associates to bachelors degrees
Totals			